

Recently Completed Theses Through BCV

Masters of Theology

Supervisor: Dr Brian Edgar

2001 Lynden Broadstock:

Thesis: Creational Dynamics in the Human Journey From Adaptive Altruism to Christian Love: An Evolutionary Perspective on the Christian Understanding of Sin

2006 Ewa Hwa Cheng:

Thesis: Preaching the Gospel as Public Truth

Supervisor: Dr Greg Forbes

2002 Ben Chenoweth:

Thesis: A Critique of Recent Interpretations of the Parable of the Talents

Supervisor: Dr Ian Hawley

2000 Philip Sinden:

Thesis: The Trinity and the Gospel of Christ in a Pluralist World: an investigation of the doctrine of the Trinity in understanding and affirming the biblical doctrine of the uniqueness of Christ in the context of religious plurality.

Supervisor: Dr Darrell Paproth

2002 Peter Ormond:

Thesis: Practical Divines and Practical Divinity in the Elizabethian Church of England, 1559 to 1603

2003 Andrew Lake:

Thesis: 'All Saints', Jakarta, 1819 to 2002: from Mission Station to International Church

Supervisor: Dr Ted Woods

2001 John Harris:

Thesis: A Theological Examination of the Alien Within the Laws of the Pentateuch

Doctor of Theology

Supervisor: Dr Colin Kruse

1997 Alexander Mak:

Thesis: Towards a Holistic View of Pauline Suffering: A Contextual Study of 2 Corinthians

Supervisor: Dr Darrell Paproth

2000 Robert Fergie:

Thesis: A study of post-independence church/state relations in Papua New Guinea with particular relevance to the Evangelical Alliance of the South Pacific Island and its involvement in the Government's National Youth Movement Program during the 1980s